Barbados is one of the most sought after vacation and tourism spots in the Caribbean. A land of contrasts, part of Barbados' unique charm comes from the old world happily coexisting with the new. Glass and marble offices stand next to brightly painted rum shops, satellite dishes festoon traditional wooden chattel houses, and high-tech SUVs drive alongside donkey carts. Bordered by the calm waters of the Caribbean Sea on the West, and by the tumultuous Atlantic Ocean on the East, just driving from one coast to the other is an experience with breath-taking scenery.

The Fairmont Royal Pavilion (Barbados)

Enjoy a 4-night stay in an oceanfront deluxe room (one king bed) including daily breakfast for two. This resort is perched on the eastern edge of the Caribbean Sea, located in St. James, eight miles from the Barbados capital city of Bridgetown and just a half-mile from shops in Holetown. An iconic 5-star luxury award-winning resort, The Fairmont Royal Pavilion for decades has become the epitome of luxury; an elegant retreat resembling a Barbadian home.

All oceanfront deluxe rooms have been refurbished and the spacious balcony area further enhanced with a glass fronted balcony railing, allowing unobstructed views of the ocean. The balcony area features comfortable furnishings and a refreshing outside ceiling fan, making this the perfect spot to enjoy the ocean vistas, whilst relaxing on the sun lounges, or enjoying a private candlelight dinner. Elegant touches include Elite pillow top beds, flat screen TVs, WiFi and DVD/CD players.

The Fairmont Royal Pavilion has been described as "The Jewel in the Crown of Barbados" - an elegant retreat where you can golf exclusive courses, play tennis, snorkel, sail, water ski and revel in the sun. The Fairmont provides complimentary non-motorized water sports equipment, including kayaks, snorkeling gear, paddle-boats, sea floats, windsurfing boards, and Hobie Wave sailboats. The spa and health club offers a full range of spa services, including body scrubs, facials, and a range of alternative therapies, as well as 24-hour gym with free weights and cardio equipments. Outside, enjoy using the freshwater swimming pool as well as a heated Jacuzzi. Ocean swimming is at your doorstep in the beautiful turquoise waters of the Caribbean's west coast.

An oasis of luxury and tranquility beneath gently swaying palm trees, The Fairmont Royal Pavilion blends old world grace and stunning scenery. Private gardens provide a tranquil, enchanting retreat. Sample new culinary offerings including theme night dinners and enjoy live entertainment on the premises seven days a week.
